

2007 is a “9” year for collective humanity—the closing year of this decade that will prepare us for new beginnings in 2008. All souls (consciously or unconsciously) agree to be “luminaries”—to live with greater integrity, to align to spiritual laws, and to courageously fulfill the destiny that beckons them. We will emerge from this stellar year of illumination and understanding in a new “Age of Conscious Awareness.”

- Quest in 2007 is universality, interdependence, compassion, discernment, truth-seeking, truth-speaking, truth-living and LIBERATING JOY.
- Don't take yourselves and others too seriously! It's not about you or them! It's about major planetary energetic shifts.
- This is not a good year for most people to start new things. It's a “house-cleaning” year—a time to clear away the old.
- Lots of contemplating and soul-searching this year (both reflective and futuristic). You will be asking yourself, “Who am I, what's my purpose?” AND most importantly, “What beliefs, responsibilities, habits, relationships, and stuff, do I want to take with me into my future?”
- Humanitarianism takes priority this year! Expect your inner self to guide you away from personal, small, and selfish interests—to “universal thoughts” of serving humanity. Align your goals for universal benefit (not personal prominence)—and you will flourish.
- Mutual benefit, patience, tact and diplomacy are very important !!! Allow your heart to overflow with compassion for “so-called enemies.”
- Primary motivation is conscientious stewardship—discerningly contribute to the betterment of yourself, others and society.
- Fulfillment of selfish passions and ego-based desires will result in disappointment and frustration.
- Anything that's outlived its usefulness and inhibits growth requires release (whether it's in life, business, politics, religion, education, science or law). No person or institution can take “lower vibrating beliefs, habits, people or stuff” with them into the higher vibrations.
- There are two distinctly different worlds evolving; the old 3-D Picean paradigm of greed, power, corruption, and deception—and the new Aquarian era of integrity, feminine energy and natural laws. Moment-by-moment each of us will be choosing our individual and collective future.
- Greater accountability, reverence and respect will be required from now on. If something isn't being corrected it will destroy itself. This includes all areas of business, politics, science, medicine, economics, religion, education, lifestyles and relationships.
- LIBERATE JOY—if something wants to go out of your life, bless it, thank it for the gifts it brought you ... and then lovingly let it go. Allow friends, colleagues, and relationships to drift out of your life. It's necessary to let go of “done-finished” relationships, lifestyles and “stuff”—even if you don't want to. Doors must close so new doors can open. Don't think of letting go as a sacrifice—it's a way to create space for new stuff to enter. Expect to feel relief, rather than pain—to feel empowered, liberated and joyful.
- Expect to experience an “energetic tug-of-war.” 3rd dimension energy will try to pull you down into the old, safe, familiar—4/5-D energy will be pulling you up into joy, adventure and new options. You'll have many opportunities LIBERATE JOY! Stay consciously aware and in each moment choose your desired future. Agree to do what's necessary—then joyfully move forward (even if the outcome is unclear and the results you are getting are not what you intended.) If you feel “frustrated,” or a sense of futility, or “what's the use”—shift moods quickly or you'll spiral into 3-D negativity and depression. Focus on your ♥'s desires—then plunge into your future trusting your inner resources.
- Manifest your new reality by forcing yourself to stay in 4/5-D vibrations and consciously co-create your new life.
- Expect tests of character, spiritual growth, compassion, understanding—and tests of your willingness to do mental, emotional and spiritual house-cleaning. No “free lunches.” Everyone has to “earn their next warbonnet feather”—earn the right to live in the “new paradigm.”
- INTEGRITY COUNTS! People who speak with authority and express lofty ideals will make an impact—but it's the people who “walk their talk” that speak from “spiritual authority” —and they touch a deep place within a person that creates real change.

- Review your life—then choose what you'd like to keep, acknowledge what you've learned—then gradually the new plans for your future will begin to reveal themselves. If you release lots of stuff in the first half of 2007— the last half of the year will be much easier.
- Get out of your head—subordinate to your heart's wisdom. Find true fulfillment in timeless values. Help others integrate material/spiritual values. Millions (maybe billions) of people will desire to align with their heart's intuitive wisdom and then inspire others by their example.
- Be tolerant, compassionate and forgiving of yourself and others as "stuff" leaves your life.
- Have the courage to voluntarily let go! Get off your command-control post and give life (and your destiny) a chance to help you!
- Be like a trapeze artist who has to let go of one hoop to catch another one—and who has to sway back and forth to stay on the tightrope.
- If you try to hold on to anything "done-finished" and don't voluntarily let it go ... you're likely to have it removed involuntarily.
- Purpose of painful experiences, loss, and disappointment is to shift you from personal/selfish motivations to impersonal motives.
- Avoid quarrels and arguments. There is little to be gained this year by trying to force an issue or force people or "stuff."
- Many people will tend be "on edge," impatient—and feel this year is more demanding than they're prepared for.
- Won't be uncommon to feel alone, uncertain, uninspired, annoyed, de-pressed, discouraged and out of control this year.
- Lots of long-standing problems will be cleared up this year—remember to "let things happen around you and not in you!"
- Keep fears, worries and doubts to a minimum. Hold to your ♥'s desires. Discipline yourself to remain poised, joyful and compassionate.
- This year is not about right-wrong or good-bad—it's about learning the consequences of violating personal integrity and spiritual laws.
- Share your wisdom by helping others straighten out their affairs. Be a compassionate teacher, counselor, and philanthropist. Provide extra service and support this year. What you do for others will bring you personal rewards. Remember: It's a "we" not "I-me" year.
- Learn and teach grieving skills—many people will be feeling great sorrow for what they and humanity will be having to release.
- FAMILY becomes very important this year! (soul, genetic, communal, global, galactic, intentional, extended and ... "all relations").
- In 2007 "Divine Delight" soul-based partners will connect—many people will put greater value on sharing life with a "special someone."
- Get "simple joys and richness" from R & R in nature—and from participating in cultural, spiritual, philosophical, inspirational & creative activities.
- Join with "like-minded" people in community—encourage each other—be creative, constructive, and help each other.
- Become a "beacon of light"—a luminary re-creating heaven in 2007! Re-discover and activate your innermost gifts, authentic power, and become a creative inspiration in your own life. Then be an inspirational role model and lead others by demonstrating your wisdom, integrity and love. The energy of 2007 supports a quantum shift into an "illuminated Aquarian society" of inter-galactic citizens wisely living in peace, prosperity, and dignity.

I'm a beacon of light illuminating the world!
